BY MAIL ly with Sunday.......$6.00 $2.00 $1.50 .50 edition only...... 250 1.00

By Times-Dispatch Carrier Delivery Ser-... 15 cents Daily with Sunday Daily without Sunday .....

Entered January 27, 1905, at Richm as second-class matter under act of Congress

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1912.

THE FOURTH DISTRICT RESULT. The best method of securing effective election laws and of repealing most important test in the Watsonto meet such a situation as was de- to the rules of the game? gler-proof, a law that will not mean mastery, helding back defeat time the Kansas Board of Health reportirrespective of person or circumstances. not so much fraud that we have to that most menace the just enforcement

The Times-Dispatch finds no fault State Committee declaring Walter A. Watson the nominee. No other opinion not to have voted were permisted to men vote. There were many election officlais who deserve the severest censure for their inexcusable unfamiliarity with the election laws, and for their refrained from officially aiding at the demonstrated. polls the candidate they personally upon the district.

construed one way at one product establishments is imported.

and another at another are capable of the wholeston of the whol staged. Probably no classic athletic be given to the fact that the tariff size be strictly regulated by the govern-took in the returned from Seymour, where they strength of sancient or modera times adds to the American manufacturer's ment. This will not interfere with the opery, Miss Fawn Lippincut says over produced so many red-blooded cost of yaw materials, nell supplies and wireless messages cent by blue eyes she'd hate I live in a city where even wireless messages cent by blue eyes she'd hate I live in a city where even and brown, though.

miracles of fielding, batting rallies, genius are largely offset by the inand superb pitching were mixed with flation in costs of produ luck, streaks of wild playing, fumbles, by our iniquitous and indefensible bad breaks and shattered control, to tariff policy. make every moment full of tense interest for temporarily demented enthusiasts. Every swing of an arm and prize surpasses the confines of mere sport, and seems to schieve public against danger from insanitary Never, indeed, in history have over the result of a conference of transpor-250,000 people spent nearly half a mil- tation and health authorities at the iion dollars to see some twenty men Hygiene Congress. expend the last shreds of skill. strength and courage in their bolies to win just a bit of bunting and a sporting title.

In the vast crowds and the huge exineffective election laws is the en- is a symbol of the vital energy, Turnbull contest was not of the can people. It is not a bad sign of strength of the candidates, but of the larger destiny that tingling nerves and adequacy and efficiency of the Byrd racing blood still belong to the people. primary law. That law carried with Nor is it without real significance it the multitude of election statutes that by mere public opinion the ordienacted from time to time, and the nary American is able to keep his whole situation was one of hopeless sport clean and straight even though confusion of laws. Both the old and played by professionals for money. No the new primary law governed the hint of suspicion attaches to the genuontest, and both were not equal to ineness of the conflict. The issue was whe effective law. A primary law as settled, not by privilege or intrigue, simple as the First Reader, as clear but by the rules of the game. Why as daylight and as incapable of misin- should not the same opinion make terpretation as the skull and bones men, playing for bigger stakes, scorn on a vial of carbolic acid is required to win except by absolute adherence veloped in the Fourth District contest Like the Old Guard at Waterloo, poncluded yesterday. The imperative Christy Mathewson died, but did not necessity for such law cannot be over- surrender. He lost like a gentleman, really traceable to some one never stated; if there is any law which the calm, unfaltering, indomnitably courpeople must have, it is a primary law ageous, pitching his heart out, and by loophole-proof, politican-proof, jug, his crafty wisdom and splendid selfone thing in one place and another in after time when his wavering com- ed that of seventy-eight samples of another, but one that will mean the rades broke behind him. Sympathy water taken from railroad trains only same thing at all times in all cases, may say "Poor Matty!" but the youth one-third proved under the microscope a law too strong for manipulation and in this young-old master of his craft, shown that passenger cars are poorly too plain for misunderstanding. It is who, by his spirit, held youth to even ventilated, a fact no winter traveler terms and proved that brains and would ever dispute. Contrary to popufear, it is mistake and miscenstruction heart win finer victories than show in lar belief, the lower berth of Pullmans

The championship was settled with the judgment of the Democratic something deeper than the sporting wooden car. writers told. It was not experience. pitching, fleetness of foot, batting, or possible after the opening of inside baseball that won. The learns tect travelers both by lack of funds the returns increased the lead of the were almost even, and the decision and lack of authority. It is to be hoped contestee, Judge Watson, Mistakes came to the men who did not "break" were made on both sides; persons who in the "pinches." It was a matter of ought to have voted were not per- character. Boston had not the betmitted to vote, and persons who ought ter players, but the finer and stouter

THE TARIFF STRAITJACKET.

The assertion of Governor Wilson that the protective system checks trade misconstruction of them. Entirely too and industrial development by placing partisanship was shown by our manufacturing and commercial enofficials who ought to have terprises in straitjackets, may be easily

The shutting out of competition by a minute examination of the sire for efficiency upon the part of our every infraction of the law, the re- case if they had to sell in open marsult might or might not have been kets on equal terms with foreign comhad between the primary and the processes are still found in many of Richmond, and, for that matter, to any final date for filing the name of the our industrial establishments because lover pining for his fair Drustila. The nomines in time to get it on the offi- the tariff barrier permits them to be Babylonian love letter is in part: mittee did what it could. The brief also, by increasing the general level of Shamash interval in which the contest had to prices, adds greatly to the capital outbe made demonstrated the danger of the processary to produce commedities. demonstrated the danger of law necessary to produce commodities, ich late primaries, for it is physically and thus brings about a general ad- now settled in Babylon, but I am ir impossible properly to investigate a vance in the cost of production. The great anxiety because I have not seen contested election in so short a period cost of erecting and equipping a cot. thee. Send news when thou wilt come. contested election in so short a period cost of erecting and equipping a cot- thee. The result naturally disappoints the ton mill of 59,000 spindles in the United month of Arakhsama (November-Deupporters of Representative Turnbull. States, together with a weave shed to cember). Mayest thou, for my sake but they doubtless avail themselves of turn the yarn produced into cloth, was live forever. the philosophic consolation that both ascertained by recent governmental in- What more natural? He desires that sandidates are men eminently qualified vestigation to be $874,579. This same she live forever, as in his separation is amply capable of reflecting credit equipped with the same machinery for before he If the people of the Fourth District than in this country. The total cost Who doubts that he called her his would forestall repetition of the mis-of a woolen mill in the United States great big Bebylonian Goll? takes of this primary, let them see to of a woolen mill in the United States of a woolen mill in the United are committed to the enactment of a 49 per cent higher cost in the United battle of Armageddon, to be fought on an effective primary law. Until there States. The mill buildings for such a November 5. is placed upon our statute books an plant could be erected in this country impregnable law, our primaries will for $176,391 as contrasted with only less than rubles. continue to create dissatisfaction and $122,500 in Great Britain. The necesdistrust on the part of the people, sary machinery could be placed in the If you believe that public offices are To secure such a law there must be mill in the United States for $180,161.

a public demand for it, a public de. while in England its installation would tutional mand that will not be satisfied with cost only $122.256. A worsted spinning treasurers and city commissioners of an emasculated statute but insistant mili of 5,400 spindles would cost com- the revenue to Hold office for life. upon a law with a backbone, without plete in the United States $203,996, and ambiguity, without omission and with- in England only $121.860, or, in other out defect. Such a law can be drawn words, the American cost of erection jet the dog sleep on the foot of the and in its framing, Mr. Byrd should and equipment is 67 per cent greater bed? be called upon for much assistance, than in England. A weaving plant of for though he discialms the primary, 100 looms costs for erection and equipstatute as his "legitimate offspring." men' in the United States $322,678. The test is over, the Index-Appeal can he should free himself of putative cost of the same mill in Great Eritate make the officeholders stop kickin' the parentage by drawing a statute so is only $132.379, or 42 per cent less effective that it could know no brother. then in this country. The compara-That no fraud was found is a notable tively higher cost of machinery to the and creditable fact, but in the present United States is due to the fact that Richmont confused and defective condition of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law imposes a our laws governing elections, there is duty of 45 per cent upon machinery. entirely too great an opportunity for and that 97 per cent of the machinery with the swagi the future practice of fraud. Statutes it, our worsted goods manufacturing

The conclusion of the whole matter the most corrupt manipulation. The experience of the whole matter but a find the conclusion of the whole matter is in no danger, to remember that the bars are down. The experience of the pourth District must elined the converge ineffect.

The conclusion of the whole matter is in no danger, to remember that the bars are down. The experience of the conclusion of the whole matter is in no danger, to remember that the pour standard of both President Garnelle whole and the conclusion of the whole matter is in no danger, to remember that the pour is a section. manufacturers, but by its exactions sure their patients would live. public to expression of the popular will upon machinery and building mater-THE WORLD'S SERIES DRAMA. at an initial disadvantage ranging from bacon to put in the well-known beans. "Well, we got our money's worth," 40 to 70 per cent in the cost of erection and "Peor Matty!" are the words that and equipment of his establishment. In might have his Sublime map changed millions of excited fans sum up contrasting his ability to compete in desperate finish on the Boston and sesses of cheap natural resources and New York diamonds. Strategy, nerve, a native inventive and mechanical

SANITATION FOR TRAVELERS.

The Southern States, with their and every flash of a bit of stuffed large floating population of negroes horsehide portended the swift change especially liable to carry disease of fickle fortune. The whole picture should be vitally interested in the ordis one of gladitorial fierceness and er issued by the Treasury Department to the Public Health Service to inspect The very magnitude of the setting all railroad trains and passenger vessels in order to protect the traveling something of the color of history. accommodations. This movement is

It was pointed out that vessels and trains constantly carry a population equal to a large city. These people hotel. Yet no precautions are taken penditures and nation-wide interest to insure cleanliness and proper sanitation such as are now demanded by corcement of the ineffective laws. The youthfulness, and soundness and the State of its hotels. Nor is any atsimplicity of heart in the Ameri- tempt made to protect employes from the constant risk of disease. These men, leading a particularly unstable and exposed life, are in contact daily with the sources of infection. It is but reasonable to demand that railroad managers take the same care of the public and their servants as do inn

In addition to the dangers from crowding in dirty and unventilated cars, is the possibility of dropping infection all along the route. The usual sources of disease are isolated and stationary. Public conveyances are moving menaces to hundreds of miles Healthful communities may have epi demics apparently inexplicable, yet

As evidence of the possibilities of the land have a not unworthy idol to be good drinking water. It was also the score. He is the greatest of them receives better air than the upper. The steel car is supplied with double the cubic feet of fresh air taken into the

> Surgeon-General Rupert Blue is at present hampered in his steps to pro- for more. his energy will convince the next Conbetter sanitation in public transporta-

A BARYLONIAN LOVE LETTER.

In certain respects man has changed little in the thousands of his years on earth. This is illustrated by recendeciphering of inscriptions on a Babylonian brick, which turn out to be a love letter, a cure for toothache and a complaint against boarding house fare. These topics are of just as much favored. If there had been time to tariff wall does not stimulate the deof the famous hanging gardens. In sendmental longing, the Babylanian lover, who had come from the country to the city, is brother to the

To Bibeya from Gimil-Marduk health could be built in England and he feels that it may be that long

Among the other war scares is the

In baseball a "Rube" is more price smendments allowing city

Where is the old-fashioned man that

Now that the Watson-Turnbull con Virginia Constitution around,

Vice-President Marshall will un-

Don't let the Plunderbund get away It would be wise for Colonel Rec veit's physicians, who are certain be

The Boston team took home the It looks as if the Sublime Porte

On the Spur of the Moment. By Roy K. Moulte

. The Neighbor. My neighbor who repides next doo Forsake his downy couch at four Most cheerfully to mow his lawn

My neighbor has a daughter who Takes singing lessons as girls do She practices the morning long; Six weeks she's sung the same

My neighbor has a raft of boys.

My neighbor has three charming And you should hear the serenades
The young men sing beneath their

It doesn't matter at what hour. He hits it up in greatest glee; He starts to playing it at eight Til midnight he keeps up his gait.

My neighbor has a kid that yells From midnight on in frequent spells. He keeps on yelling until dawn. Then dad gets up and mows the lawn.

foreigner is willing to let well enough alone. He is content to sell us his novolties and highly finished products, which we do not manufacture, provided that we can be checked in our inroads on foreign markets. Another significant fact in this connection is to be found in the action of foreign markets. Another significant fact in this connection is to be found in the action of foreign markets. Another significant fact in this connection is to be found in the action of foreign markets. Another significant fact in this connection is to be found in the action of foreign markets. Another significant fact in this connection is to be found in the action of foreign markets. Another significant fact in this connection is to be found in the action of foreign markets. Another significant fact in this connection is to be found in the action of foreign markets. Another significant fact in this connection is to be found in the action of foreign markets. Another significant fact in this connection is to be found in the action of foreign markets. Another significant fact in this connection is to be found in the action of foreign markets. Another significant fact in this connection is to be found in the action of foreign markets. Another significant fact in this connection is to be found in the action of foreign markets. Another significant fact in this connection is to be found in the action of foreign markets. Another inroads on foreign markets. Another inroa be.

If you want a meal of considerable fact which contains variety, one in fact which contains almost everything, order Hungarian

Pullman car porters are somewhat dignified but they will not refuse ten first name the first time you meet The court has ordered a Kansa

There are doubtless some Kansas sheriffs who could do it and then ask John D. Rockefeller has declined to some case in which every candidate can consider himself very lucky.

The report that a boy in New York city was bitten by a frankfurter was obably slightly exaggerated.

Secretary McVeagh would make banknotes smaller so that they will be easter to carry, but most folia could carry a lot more of them than they have right now.
Gifford Pinchet has fallen out an automobile, but he didn't get

A woman at Niagara Falls has twenty-eight children. Let it be hoped they do not all grow up to be sight-seeing hack drivers.

A magazine writer says Woodrow Wilson has a highly developed sense of humor. But it is the vice-presicent who needs that.

According to Uncle Abner. A feller who sits in a poker same en a Pullman car with three strang-ers ain't entitled to any sympathy. Hank Tumms says he is glad his

What other victory se id was born in Canada, bekus he rill never have to run for president f this country.

The dellar watch has certainly put haughty son of man League after league, across the plains, or where the billows be,
And fling unto the rushing flend the challenge of the sex. crimp in the holdup business. The gal who can make a $2 hat Into the empire of the dark, as all the look like $25 before marriage doesn't always try to do it afterwards.

Nothing will get a crowd like a hours drew Unto the midnight, even as the free feed You can always tell a cheap skate

Hank Tumms says he will eat his straw hat and he will run it through a meat chopper and eat it for breakfast food.

It is a Of him flashed over the lane of light, as one who seeks to know By all the steadfast stars, or by the leadly sun a-wlow old man Hicks of our town says With glory, what the coming hour or adjourned and folks will now have to depend upon what little they can get from the newspaper.

Voice of the People

Another Overworked Bogy.
Our Republican and Buil Moose contemporaries are now receiving special messages from abroad. These dispensations are not localized or do not bear the authorization of any name.
Somehow or other they come to the attention of Republican and Progressive editors who forbear to quote the text, but tell us of the dire missivings and forebodings created in their minds

Abe Martin

Add your destor If a family model the Appric Secreporite, is not ve by these invisible news sources. Their purport is always the same-foreign manufacturers are receiving with joy the news of the inevitable election of woodrow Wilson, and are overhauling their plants with the object of inundating American markets with the products of cheap European and Brit-

The Midnight Run.

descending o'er the vales, from the nursery of the where all the giddy gales

Repose unto a weary world in its tre-

But not to him the balm of rest in the Flings down the starry gold as from the gateway of the East gorgeous feast. Thus with the lines of duty set, whercall, afar.

Of battle, while the soul exults above

Twas thus he held, that solemn night, with quenchless rage.

haughty son of man

ing headlight flew t thunders on, for since out of the old mystery.

the fear of war.

of every age distills sweet arms of night.

For he must, as the storm-wing before the lavish day mendous flight

there falled not what the lore over the world away. the fields and over the streams, ing Hospital. BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY.

ORD MIDLETON'S sister, the Hon.
Albina Brodrick (who has been wrongly described in the cable dispatches as "Lady" Brodrick) arrives to-morrow in New York on board the Baktic, to take up the study of nursing and of household administration, in the Teachers' College of Columbia University, under the direction of Professor Adekide Nutting, an elderly malden—she is over fity—and far from rich, she some time ago took up nursing as a profession, obtained a diploma as such, has lately pecially its women, the ethics of sani-tation and of the care of the house-hold, and it is in order to be able to direct this species of tuition more efficiently that she proposes to study for some time at Columbia under Pro-fessor Nutting, at the same time col-lecting money wherever possible for the projected institution. All of her sisters are serious-minded like herself. One of them is the wife of the Bishop He gathered unto him his soul on that and feeble was the light those brown November mes like thrilling melodies unto a ever it may be, That Fate shall fling her challenge (prohounced Hendref which in Welcan means "the old home") has been in its possession for over 350 years, the mansion itself dating from 1840. It has had many reval visitors, begin-ning with Charles II., who spent a couple, of nights there while fleeing from the victorious armies of Crom-well; while Queen Victoria Edward

When, lo! the wrath of God comes forth to smite a godless age, And A'te rushes to the feast of Death gables, towers and turrets, and is full of all sorts of interesting relics, ingables, towers and turrets, and is full of all sorts of inferesting relics, in-cluding a tortoise-shell dressing-case of Francis I., of France; a work-box used by Queen Elizabeth, which she embroidered herself, the identical hat embroidered herself, the identical hat which Nanoleon wore at the battle of Waterloo; the chaft at which Milton sat when he wrote "Paradise Lost," the Young Pretender's walstcoat, embroidered by the ladies of the Stuart court of St. Germains: the sets of silver and porchlain presented by the English nation to Nelson; a silver tea-pot and tea-urn given by Sir William Hamilton, the British envoy at Naples, and his wife, the fair but frail Emma, Lady Hamilton, to Nelson, for use on board the Foudroyant, and last but not least, some magnificent old Spanish plate, Along the narrowing line of steel, the eye, and lo, the soul 400 years old, which was taken to South America for safety at Old man Hicks of our town says judgin' by the sentiment in this neighborhood he is sure the Prohibition party ain't goin' to elect a President for several years yet.

News are very scarce in our village just now as the sewin' circle has at the close of the seventeenth century and remained concealed there in the and remained concealed there in the interest of the seventeenth of the

There where the woodland skirts the way his spirit gently smiled, When over the rails the fleeing hare but scarcely leaped, beguiled By the fierce glare; or in the field the heifer fled, and turned Anon to gaze wild-eyed upon the roarling flend that burned its way into the shadowy walls and dim embattlements Of old, imperial night; or flung afar its sudden vents
Of rage, But, lo! how could the eye, alert for peril, see
A ghostly form in sombre robes before his lightning flee.

There is at the Hendre a sp-called "chamber of horrors," somewhat in keeping with that at Madame Tusscand's, and full of all sorts of gruethe world. The house stands in a well-timbered park
house stands in a well-timbered park
house stands in a well-timbered park house face, But, lo! how could the eye alert for peril, see

A ghostly form in sombre robes before
his lightning flee.

Rose was formerly the wife of John Blundell Leigh, but her union to him

Lord Cottenham is the chief of the house of Pepys, to which Samuel house of Pepys, author of the famous "Diary" Pepys, author of the famous "Diary" dealing with the times of Charles IL.

TO STUDY NURSING

She Comes to This Country to Make Preparation for Open-her own at Ballincoona in the county, where she has been subsisting county, where she has been subsisting on five shillings a week in order to save money for the purpose. She proposes that the hespital which she has in view shall not only care for the in view shall not only care for the childs of sanithe projected institution. All of her sisters are serious-minded like herself. One of them is the wife of the Bishop of Glasgow. Her brother, Lord Midletton, will be better remembered in this country as William St. John Brodrick, who was Secretary of State for warduring the greater part of the Boercampaign, and as such the object of much criticism. Afterwards he became Secretary of State for India, where he was again blamed for having failed to smoothe over the quarrel between Lord Kitchener and Lord Curzon, and with having allowed it to develop to such an extent as to entail the resignation by Lord Curzon of the great office of Viceroy of India. Curzon and Midleton were classinates at Eton, and the most intimate of friends until this episode, since which they do not speak. The Hon. Albinia's girlhood was spent at Peper Harow, the ancestral home of the family in Surrey, which has been in the possession of the Brodricks for over 200 years. It is a grand old place, which figures in Doomsday Book as being held by walis a grand old place, which had by Wal-pomeday Book as being the Wal-queror, after having been previously held by an Anglo-Saxon knight of the name of Alward from Edward the Confessor. The Midleton peerage was bestowed upon Sir Alan Brodrick, who after filling the office of Speaker of after filling the office of Speaker of the Souse of Commons, became Lord Chancellor of Ireland. He took this title of Viscount Midleton, from Midleton, in the County of Cork, where his Are born unto the hevering clouds, and to the hoary hills; the present lord, still owns the lever of his power.

And thundered over the rails as though the cried the awful hour.

The cried the awful hour.

Queen Mary, have stayed there on several occasions.

The house is a wonderful medley of

If the Earl of Cotenham is offering It fied within the sheltering edge of the mysterious dark,
And over its shoulder turned its visage, sinister and stark,
To the orrushing train, and still it swiftly fied before The light, and from the steadfast eye of kim who starnly bore

The light, who starnly bore

The light, who starnly bore

The light who starnly bore

The larl of Cotenham is offering for sale all his extensive estates in for sale al

The light, and from the steadfast eye in my who straily bore
The light, and from the steadfast eye in my who straily bore
The light, and from the steadfast eye in my of him who straily bore
The light, and from the steadfast eye in mitted to his cara.

Devoting thus his life, and all, as only they may dare
Who are the manilest men, and worthy of this hely trust:
And who shall say that here soul descended from the first.

BENJAMIN C. MOOMAW.
Savannah, Va.

FOR all the family

Abuse Tosic - Without Alcohol

Abuse Tosic - Without Alcohol

After Maniles - Wit

belonged. Prior to his marriage Lord Cottonham was known as one of the best amateur actors in London, and being as perfect in French as in Engbeing as perfect in French as in Eng-lish, on several occasions took a lead-ing part in theatrical entertainments at the French Embassy. Devoted to hunting, he has bitterly resented be-ing virtually driven out of his home-county of Cheshire, which is one of the finest hunting countries in the United Kingdom; and the only matter for sur-prise is that he should have delayed for so long selling the place.

Lord Cottenham in addition to his a couple of baronetcies; one derived from Sir Lucas Pepys, physician to George III., and the other from Sir from Sir Lucas Pepys, physician to George III., and the other from Sir William Pepys, who was a Master in Chancery. The principal founder of the family fortunes was William Pepys, the London banker, who flour-ished in the reign of Queen Anne, and of George L. when he was the great of George L, when he was the great financial power of the metropolis. Lord terms as Lord High Chancellor of England, beginning in the reign of William IV., and surrendering the Great Seal of England to Queen Vic-toria for the last time in 1851.

ALLENS PREPARE APPEAL TO COURT

Bills of Exception Ready-May Be Presented in Richmond Next Month.

Rills of exception have been prepared by attorneys for Floyd Allen and Claude Swanson Allen, to be used in the appeal for new trials, which will soon be presented to the Supreme Court. In all, forty-five bills of exception have been formed, and these have been examined by Judge Waller Staples, such charges as were deemed proper being made therein.

Judge N. H. Hairston and R. H. Willis of Roanoke, represented the defense at the conference with Judge Staples, while the attorneys for the Commonwealth present were Joseph C. Wysor and John S. Draper, of Pulask The latter suggested certain changes which should be made in order to make the points more comprehensive. The defense is now busy with its petition to the Supreme Court. In which it will elaborated the arguments petition may be presented begins in Edchmond on Nonext term begins in incamons on average vember 12. In case the papers are sent to the full court here, the body as a whole could pass upon them: If an appeal is granted, the care would ge on the docket for argument. If it is denied, the Governor is the last hope death in the electric chair on November 22, the former for the murder Commonwealth's Attorney William courthouse on March 14 of this year.

It is supposed the principal argument for Claude Allen is that he was ment for Claude Allen is that he was years in the penitentiary, and that the second trial was for practically the same offense. Some informal petitions from indi-viduals asking for a new trial have viduals asking for a new trial have already reached the Supreme Court here. These are, of course, not con-

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION IN SESSION AT WELDON

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Weldon, N. C., October 16—The Rosnocke Baptist Association convened with the Baptist Church here last night, Rev. O. L. Powers, of Scotland Neck, preaching the opening sermon.
Sixty churches are represented, and ministers and lay delegates are here from six counties embraced in this union. T. M. Arrington, of Rocky union. T. M. Arrington, of Rocky characteristics and control of the control sion till to-morrow night.

Body is Identified.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Bristol. Va. October 16.—The body of the stranger who died suddenly near here August 13, while waiting on the porch of a farmhouse for a drink of water, was identified to-day as that of Dennie Mahoney, of Philadelphia Mahoney's brother and sister came here from Philadelphia and had the hody edhumed. The brother had been roaming the country for twenty-two years, having left home when eleven. A card in his pocket bearing a Camden, N. J., address finally led to the location of his relatives, and they rescued his body from a pauper's grave.

PUT THIS LABEL ON YOUR GOODS Teleph MADISON 805 TUIPIUN THE SOUTH